Of course.

In the spirit of transparency, I should have – and now am – copying my communication to you to all the parties to your Complaint case. I would not want anyone to think there has been any secret discussions or anything of the sort.

Regards,

To the extent that the following constitutes a FOIA request, I would like to inform you that the Commission does not have any records responsive to your request, and therefore, no documents may be delivered to you.

"I asked for the bond information for Mr. Butler along with each commissioner and you have failed to provide this. I am requiring you to send me the information about Mr. Butler's Bond. I am requiring you to send me the bond for the following individuals: Justin T. Williams Chairman, Florence P. Belser Vice, Stephen "Mike" Caston, Carolyn "Carolee" L. Williams, Thomas J. "Tom" Ervin, Headen B. Thomas, Delton W. Powers. I am requiring you to tell me if the Public Service Commission has a Bond as a whole overall Commissioners and lawyers. I am requiring you to tell me how much the bond is for?"
